

EAST SIDE OF BOULEVARD abt 1.17 miles

NOTE: In the James Heile Document this is referred to as the SOUTH SIDE

This area at one time was the farm of Philip Nine In the 1950s-60s, there was a Howard Johnson Restaurant on this corner Today-2024 a McDonald's

This corner at one time was the home and blacksmith shop of Jacob Emmett In the 1960's, there was McMahon Esso Service Station on this corner Today-2024 Das Used Autos

In the 1960's, this was the location of Circle Motors, Inc. Today-2024 Auto Zone Auto Parts

Christoff Benner Store

Once the home of Christoff Benner who ran a grocery and confectionery store here in the late 1800-early 1900's 3313 Washington Blvd.

Former home of Henry Ulrich Link The building was replaced prior to 1961 with a 2-story brick structure 3315 Washington Blvd.

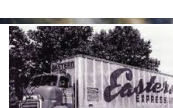

Philip Grace mosaic brick-retaining wall-2024

Approx. Loc of the home of Philip Grace Sr. who died 1930. By 1961, the home had been replaced with another 2-story frame dwelling. Today, that structure is also gone. Possibly 3325 Washington Blvd.

In 1961, there was a 2-story stucco home next door. It is gone today.

In 1961, the approx. loc. of The Eastern Motor Express Line Possibly 0000 Washington Blvd.

In 1961, the approx. loc. of Display Craft Manufacture Company, Inc. Store Fixtures. Possibly 0000 Washington Blvd.

Blind Industries and Services of Maryland

Approximate Location of: Joseph & Margaret Narer 3421 & 3423 Washington Blvd.

Approximate Location of: John Eichelman Jr. & Barbara Goeller-Eichelman 3425 Washington Blvd.

Approximate Location of: Michael J. Goeller & Anna Regina Michler-Goeller Later George C. Bienlein & Anna H. Goeller-Bienlein, daughter of Michael & Anna Regina 3427 Washington Blvd.

Approximate Location of John J. Grace and Margaret Goeller-Grace 3429 Washington Blvd.

Approximate Location of: Edward Grace and Catherine Doherty-Grace Also the home of William Stritch & Anna Grace-Stritch (daughter of Edward & Catherine and sister of Mary Grace 1860-1882) who married John Eichelman Sr. Later occupied by Peter Dembrowicz and Margaret Grace-Dembrowicz (daughter of Philip Grace Jr.) 3431 Washington Blvd.

Approximate Location of: Once owned by Edward Grace & Catherine Doherty-Grace, Once home of John & Mary Harold Later home of Philip Grace Jr. & Della Houck-Grace until 1964 when Lansdowne Road was put through. 3433 Washington Blvd.

Approximate Location of Knecht's 1st House: In 1961, occupied by George Sadler 3405 Washington Blvd.

Approximate Location of Knecht's 2nd House: John Miller once lived here. In 1961, occupied by George E. Lotterer 3409 Washington Blvd.

Relocated Coursey Family Cemetery 1940s

Newer brick building in 1961. Arbutus Contracting Company (steel fabrication and welding) 3513 Washington Blvd.

This area is now named Lansdowne Station with a Walmart anchor store. It was previously the Coursey Farm and the farms of Michael Reitz, Fred Link and Kalines The farms ran from this point on the blvd. east to the B&O Railroad ----->

Approximate Location of Original Coursey Family Cemetery

Once the home and farmhouse of Henry Ulrich Link The farm ran from this point on the blvd. east to the B&O Railroad -----> Now the office of the Swan Motel 3715 Washington Blvd.

